

SPEED's Family Focus series presents a Parent workshop

“Autism, Disabilities and Puberty...How do we handle this combination?”

Wednesday, March 27, 2013
(9:30 am to 11:30 am)
SPEED Campus 1125 Division St.
Chicago Heights, IL. 60411

This workshop presented by Elaine Reeves Haywood of “A Place For Me” agency, will offer strategies for parents and professionals who support children with developmental disabilities to understand puberty, the process of physical changes, privacy and safety.

The workshop will teach a variety of concepts through visuals, worksheets, social and support tools to help parents and professionals who are currently or soon will face the many challenges of adolescence.
